Tradition Spotlight

Tradition Four

Short form: "Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups of A.A. as a whole."

Long form: With respect to its own affairs, each A.A. group should be responsible to no other authority than its own conscience. But when its plans concern the welfare of neighboring groups also, those groups ought to be consulted. And no group, regional committee, or individual should ever take any action that might greatly affect A.A. as a whole without conferring with the Trustees of the General Service Board. On such issues our common welfare is paramount.

Quote: "Every group had the right to be wrong." Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, Page 147.

“ Responsibility Statement

I AM RESPONSIBLE:
when anyone, anywhere,
reaches out for help,
I want the hand of A.A.
always to be there.
And for that: I AM RESPONSIBLE.

“ 5th Tradition, Long Form

Each Alcoholics Anonymous
group ought to be a spiritual entity having but one primary purpose - that of carrying its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

“ AA Declaration of Unity

This we owe to A.A.'s future:
to place our common welfare first;
to keep our Fellowship united.
For on A.A. unity depend
our lives and the lives
of those to come.
