

“THE OTHER 23”

I stopped drinking. Now what do I do.

You are Invited to a camping weekend to explore what do I do with my new found freedom.

Friday June 16th, 5pm – Sunday June 18th noon.

Early Bird camping Thursday June 15, 1pm.

Buckaloons Recreational Area, Warren PA

6 miles east of Warren, South on Rt 62.

Presenters will share their experiences on what they did and what they should not have done when they put down the first drink. They have been guided to do things they never thought possible. There will be time for break bread, campfires, fellowship and other activities in the Allegheny Forest.

We are asking for a $50 donation for the weekend. This gets you Friday Dinner, Saturday Breakfast and Dinner and Sunday Breakfast. Water and coffee. Camping all 3 nights. You are encouraged to give more if you can to help gift this to someone else. We have a limit of 50 people.

You are responsible for tenting, bedding, hygiene items, beverages other than coffee and water, and snacks. If you want to take an RV, trailer or popup you are responsible for making arrangements with Buckaloons Recreational Area. (Recreation.gov).
